

PRIVACY POLICY

Oro Silver Resources Ltd. Privacy Policy

In accordance with Canadian Federal Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents (PIPEDA) Act, 1999-2000 Bill C-6, Oro Silver Resources Ltd. (OSR) issues the following corporate privacy policy.

Privacy Statement

Maintaining the privacy and confidentiality of Oro Silver's shareholder and interested parties' personal information is of particular importance to us. OSR does not sell, rent, or loan any information regarding its shareholders or interested parties to anyone. Any information you give us is held with the utmost care and security, and will never be used in way to which you have not consented.

OSR will not collect any personal information about individuals except when specifically and knowingly provided by such individuals. OSR will not share personal aggregate or summary information regarding its shareholders with partners or any other third parties, nor will it sell or share any personal information.

Use of Information Gathered

When you request information from OSR, register for our email update list, or complete an entry form we place you on our list to receive new releases, updates and bulletins about both OSR directly and/or related information that is pertinent to OSR's business model by email, mail or fax.

Additionally, if a phone number is provided we may call to ensure that such information is being received and understood in context, unless specified to the contrary.